

Electronic funds transfer can make bill paying more convenient

Save time and money paying bills and buying stamps with our automatic payment program. Complete the form below if you wish to have your garbage service payments automatically deducted from your account. Electronic funds transfer (EFT) allows us to deduct the current balance of your D & O Garbage Service bill directly from your checking or savings account. The funds will be deducted on the billing statement due date.

Print out and complete below attached form, then return it to us with a voided check. There is no fee to enroll in this program and EFT will ensure that your D & O Garbage Service bill will be paid promptly, even when you are away from home. You will still receive regular statements to keep you informed of the status of your account.

You can revoke your participation at any time, but please allow one month for us to process your request. D&O Garbage Service reserves the right to cancel your participation at any time.

All information submitted to D & O Garbage Service, Inc. is strictly confidential.
